

Committed to Your Quality Standards

Baseline Bats is proud to assist all professional and amateur ball players find the highest quality baseball bats. We like to work closely with our players so they can have a hand in their bat design and feel. We are dedicated to each player's individual preferences in model, length, weight, colour and any other precise details that a player needs; because we value your hitting performance.

Geoff McCallum, the Single Season Hits Record Holder in the Northern League, will be using Baseline Bats in the 2008 Season.

"These bats are beautiful" said, Bill Buckner, a Major League Baseball legend, swinging a BL110 Maple 33 inch bat. Buckner had 2715 career hits and won the NL Batting Title in 1980.

Baseline Bats are Your Pro-Grade Choice!

Baseline Bats are the producers of professional quality, handcrafted wood baseball bats. Only the best, top quality, Pro-Grade wood is hand selected. All seconds are discarded. We want our players to have access to top quality wood, proper bat weights and lengths.

As a professional baseball scout, I see many players using bats that are not specific to them and as a result their hitting performance lacks in average and power.

Pro-Grade Wood Guaranteed!

Every bat we produce is customized to each player's preference and choice. All bats are individually weighed, balanced and finished to professional standards. Customizing your own bat ensures a consistent feel and optimal hitting performance.

Once you try our bats we believe you will be impressed!

Sincerely,

Dan Mendham and Bob Slater

What the Professionals Think About Baseline Bats?

"I found Baseline Bats to be made from the highest quality wood, matched with exacting craftsmanship. Truly comparable to any bat that I have seen."

--Jay Lapp, Milwaukee Brewers,
Canadian Scout Supervisor

"Baseline Bats uses the best wood with the fewest grains that I've ever seen outside of a Major League clubhouse. The Bats are made with great care and attention to detail to weight and feel. I would highly recommend to anyone who is serious about baseball to try using Baseline Bats so they too can experience the satisfaction that I have."

--Brandon Steele, Tusculum College, Hitting Coach

"I had my bats customized, so they all feel the same. After my first round of batting practice, I knew these bats were perfect. The ball popped off my bat. I can't wait to start the season using my Baseline bats."

--Geoff McCallum, Kansas City T-Bones,
Single Season Hits Record Holder in the Northern League

"I only recommend the highest quality products and services to my clients. Baseline Bats proved to me that their bats are professional quality and their service is exceptional. Not only do I know my players are getting a pro model bat, but I know their able to get the bat customized exactly the way they want it. I recommend Baseline Bats to all my amateur and professional baseball athletes."
